Understood Better Each Day The most successful business man is the one who knows every detail of his business and does not depend upon a pull for his success. Each day this is better understood. In no business is a detailed knowledge more essential than in the Building Trade. If you want an estimate on any work in my line, I'll be pleased to give you the benefit of my many years experience.

APPEAL TAKEN TO SUPREME COURT

Taken By L. N. Bixby and Others in Case of Hewitt et al. ex'rs. vs. Wheeler School and Library et al.—Saturday Session of Superior Court.

As was expected, an appeal has been taken in the case of T. B. Hewitt et al., ex'rs. vs. the Wheeler school and library et al., and it will go to the supreme court of errors for a decision. Judge Wheeler recently heard the motions in the case and ruled that the organization could not be a party to the case.
H. D. Wheeler. The appeal is taken by the attorneys for Miss L. N. Bixby of New York, while others have also filed notice of appeal in the case, there being several church organizations interested.

Colchester Case Heard.
There was a session of the superior court in New London on Saturday and Judge Ralph Wheeler put in another full day.
Mrs. Bessie A. Heath of Colchester, who does not care whether she is involved from Charles A. Heath or not, but is very anxious that she shall provide for her support, clung to her story told when the case was first heard two weeks ago that her husband deserted her and that he has failed to provide for her support.

Mrs. Heath was cross examined by Attorneys Hall and Comstock of Norwich, who represent the husband, but she persistently contended that Heath had deserted her and had not given her money with which to buy the necessaries of life. She also said that to prevent her having opportunity to attach them to satisfy her claim, Heath had had property and money tied up in property through having suit brought against him by his son, and the money, which is in the form of bank deposits, by putting them in the name of her son, and making himself trustee. The property is in Colchester and the deposits in Norwich banks.

Mrs. Heath's testimony was interrupted by the argument of demurrers in the case of William Hoxie vs. New Haven road, which was given perpetually. This argument was very lengthy and was not finished. It will be resumed this morning at 10 o'clock.
This week took no recess for luncheon. After the argument of the Hoxie case Mrs. Heath took the stand again and the cross examination was made. Mrs. Heath made an excellent witness and maintained her story. The case was not finished and will be continued this morning at 11:30 o'clock.

Heath, who is much older than his wife, was present and made a general denial of all the charges and claims that Mrs. Heath asserted him.
This she claims she did because of her health and the fact that she was divorced proceedings against his wife as soon as the case is disposed of.

The argument of the case of R. A.
Sherman vs. Co. vs. the Industrial and Manufacturing Co., scheduled for Saturday afternoon, were not held with and before. Instead the trial with and before Wheeler.

Court will come in this morning for the continued argument of the Hoxie case and the trial of the Heath suit.
Tuesday for the trial of two cases.

There must also come conviction of what God wants us to do. Many do not do anything for God because they have no conviction. The world is a gospel. Young people can do this as messengers.

Having had conversion and conviction there is need of consecration.
The Lord Jesus wants you to work for His cause, for missions. If Jesus desires that you go out into the mission field, you should pray for missions and missionaries. You may not be able to send your message to the world, but you can pray to God and He will transmit the message. He showed the relative amounts of money spent for honor, for comfort and for missions. He also said that in a clear manner by the use of ribbons of different colors and length.

Massachusetts Pastor Heard.
Dr. E. H. Bingham, pastor of the Dane Street Congregational church, Beverly, Mass., as the second speaker, proved equally interesting, though without the illustrative features of the first speaker. He also said that he was very pleased to be asked to speak here, as Dr. Pratt was in the audience. Dr. Pratt was in the audience. He also recalled having camped at Gates Ferry several years ago, and having entertained a party of Christ church choir boys on his boat.

He took as his subject, Angels, and aroused the children's interest when he asked how many angels there were in the audience. He also said that they were all angels at times. The prevalent feature of an angel, he said, is generally thought to be wings, but he said that an angel is one who is sent, one who is doing an errand. To be a kind of messenger, to be a messenger of flowers to the sick, giving help to missions is being an angel.
You cannot be angels all the time, but you can be angels at times. We are not to live out ourselves and whether it is temperance house or city missions, or civil reform, it is all the work of angels.
The service closed with benediction by Rev. Mr. Bingham.

A pleasing feature of the meeting was the singing by the vested choir of Christ Episcopal church, they being seated on the platform in front of the organ.

CATHEDRALS, TEMPLES,
AND MOSQUES.
Illustrated Lecture by Hon. O. P. Austin of Washington, D. C.
An audience that practically took every seat in the church was present Saturday evening at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church to hear an illustrated lecture by Hon. O. P. Austin of Washington, D. C., upon "Cathedrals, Mosques and Temples of the World." After an opening hymn by the congregation and prayer by Rev. F. C.
Wright of the Central Baptist church, the speaker was introduced by Rev.
Dr. M. S. Kaufman, pastor of the church.

Showing a great number of excellent pictures by the lantern operated by Rev. H. B. Ringland of Norwich, the lecturer conducted his hearers for more than an hour through the notable buildings included under his subject in all lands. The great churches of the New World and the cathedrals of the Old were first visited, followed by the mosques and temples to be found in Northern Africa, Turkey and Judea. In closing, the orient was visited and the temples of India, Burmah, Ceylon, China and Japan shown and explained by the speaker. The interested attention of his hearers throughout.

CURED BRONCHITIS

Mrs. Hopkins Says Her Life Was Saved—Choked and Gagged
For Breath.

"Some five years ago I was taken with a bad attack of bronchitis. I was affected with a bronchial cough and cold, the cough was generally much more apparent at night, and I would wake up choking and gasping for breath, and there seemed to be a terrible stoppage in my throat and tubes.
My throat was tender and irritable, and had an aching sensation, which was especially bad at times. I doctored and used several remedies, but received no permanent relief until I used Hyomel. This remedy is certainly infallible, and it saved my life, and I accord it the credit which it deserves. There is nothing too strong for me to say regarding Hyomel." The price for a complete outfit is only $1.00, which includes a bottle of Hyomel and a neat hard rubber inhaler.

The Lee & Osgood Co. sells Hyomel
